

Gunnedah Office

To better service and support the growing number of clients in Gunnedah and its surrounds, Monteath & Powys has opened an office in this regional centre.

The opening of this professional office formalised the strong client base that Monteath & Powys has always had in North West regional areas.

North Western NSW surveying, engineering design and land project management projects are administered from this office that is operated by permanent professional staff.

Monteath & Powys staff offer an extensive range of land development services for clients in the industry sectors of:

- Mining
- Road construction
- Rail
- Infrastructure
- Local government
- Land subdivisions
- Agricultural

As well as projects managed from Gunnedah, regional clients are supported by over 60 surveyors, civil engineering designers, planners, project managers and administrative staff in the Newcastle head office.
